The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Patti.

Patti shows a pulling tool having an elongated handle 1 and an engaging member 7 having a tapered hooked portion. Statements of intended use such as the type of object being engaged by the tool is a matter of intended use that has no patentable significance. In any case, the Patti tool is considered to be capable of prying a concrete form from a concrete structure.
